

Guide to Greece

39.0742° N

21.8243° E

ISLAND HOPPING

With so many islands to choose from, the best way to explore is by zone. The Cyclades bring iconic white villages and party nights in Mykonos and Ios, while the Ionian Islands offer wild landscapes in Kefallonia and emerald waters in Zakynthos. For history, head to the Dodecanese, and for epic terrain, choose Crete. Pick a few islands, hop by ferry, and discover Greece at your own pace.

www.planmytour.co.uk

ROAD TRIPPING

The best way to uncover Greece's history is by car. Start in Athens, then wind through the mainland and Peloponnese, stopping at Delphi, Nafplio, and Olympia along the way.

www.planmytour.co.uk

UNDERWATER IN MILOS

With over 70 beaches, sea caves, and unique boathouses, Milos is a paradise for swimmers and divers. Sarakiniko's lunar cliffs are perfect for jumping, while Gerondas offers calm waters and shady escapes. Beneath the surface, crystal-clear seas reveal an underwater world waiting to be explored.

www.planmytour.co.uk

WALK IN HYDRA

Car-free and charming, Hydra invites you to wander its harbor, hike rugged trails, swim in deep blue waters, and sip cappuccinos by the sea. The island's stone houses and narrow paths feel timeless, offering a slower rhythm of life. Perfect for a day trip to lose track of time entirely.

www.planmytour.co.uk

UNIQUE LANDSCAPES IN SANTORINI

Explore the ancient ruins of Akrotiri, bathe in volcanic hot springs, and relax on striking black-sand beaches. Hike across Santorini's active volcano to see lava fields and steaming craters up close. Beyond the dramatic terrain, the island's caldera views and sunsets create a natural wonder unlike anywhere else.

www.planmytour.co.uk

EAT IN THESSALONIKI

Known as Greece's culinary capital, Thessaloniki tempts with lively markets, Ottoman-era flavors, and endless meze plates. Try bougatsa pastries with cream or cheese for breakfast, savor fresh seafood along the waterfront, and linger over souvlaki, kebabs, and spicy local sausages. From traditional tavernas to modern cafés, every corner of the city serves up a taste of its rich history.

www.planmytour.co.uk

KAPANI MARKET

Thessaloniki's oldest open-air market is a feast for the senses. Stalls overflow with fresh produce, olives, spices, and local cheeses, while butchers and fishmongers keep the tradition alive. Wander through the maze of vendors, sample street snacks, and soak in the vibrant energy of daily life.

www.planmytour.co.uk

SEE

- Sanctuary of Apollo in Delphi
- Ancient Olympia in Peloponnese
- The Acropolis in Athens

STAY

- Nostos or Chill & Co in Serifos
- Merastri in Rethymno, Crete
- Aeris Suites in Koufonisia

EAT

- Souvlaki at Kostas in Athens
- Grilled meat at Steki tou Ilia in Athens
- Seafood at Captain Pipinos on Antiparos

DRINK

- Aperitifs at Mira on Paros
- Upscale wine at Estate Argyros Winery
- Coffee at Melina in Athens

SHOP

- Pottery at Trabala Studios in Athens
- Olives and honey at Pangrati Weekly Market
- Souvenirs at Kapani Market in Thessaloniki